BISHOP SNOW GOES TO SALT

Bishop Morani Snow of the Fifth ward, has resigned and will move to Sait Lake. He expects to leave the latter part of the week. The reason for his change of residence, which is generally regretted by the people of the ward and the city, is of a business nature. It is not publicly known who will succeed him in the Bishopric, Mr Snow is also a member of the city council. In this position he will probably be succeeded by J. E. Snyder, his Republican opponent at the last municipal election, as the council will be Republican by one majority on the etirement of Councilman Snow

Mayor Prisby has Issued a call for the observance of Plag day, June 14.

On Priday afternoon the citizens of Provo have been invited to a nail driving coniest on the fence around the fair grounds, which the committee is anxioud to have up before the baseball game between the Provo and Borl Douglas teams Saturday. The stores will probably be closed so that the clerks may turn out and drive nails. It is realized that the county fair project is to a great extent a public benefit undertaking and the committee expects a liberal response to the invitation to help the work along.

Dr. June Seegmiller of Richfield is in Provo on his way home from Chicago, where he has completed a course of dentistry in the Chicago bental college.

Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. J. J. Talmage will be held Sunday at 12 o'clock in the Fifth ward meeting-house, Miss Susa Talmage, who is studying in New York, is expected here Friday.
